UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

SUBJECT : Warning Systems Survey -- Conclusions,
Summary and Recommendations

REFERENCES : USIB-M-146, item 12 and Special Annex
USIB-M-147, item 1

1. We are forwarding for information and appropriate action the following:

- a. Conclusions of Warning Systems Survey
- b. Summary of Warning Systems Survey
- c. General Recommendations (Category I)
- d. Recommendations to the Watch Committee (Category II)
- e. Annex A - State Department Version of Conclusions
- f. Annex B - Extracts from Minutes of 21 March 1961
USIB meeting

2. These documents reflect the Board action on the Warning Systems Survey Report and related papers, including the differing views of the Department of State with respect to some portions of the Conclusions and Summary and certain amendments agreed to at both the 21 March and 28 March USIB meetings. The specific action taken by the Board on each of these papers is set forth in more detail in Annex B, which contains extracts from the Board minutes of the 21 March and 28 March USIB meetings. It is particularly important to read Annex B together with the Category I recommendations to ascertain the implementing actions which the Board agreed should be taken on those recommendations.

3. Although these papers are now being disseminated as a document in the USIB-D series, for administrative convenience the National Indications Center (NIC) will handle the distribution and act as the repository for extra copies of these documents. The NIC in addition will continue to maintain the security control over, and dissemination of, the Warning Systems Survey Report itself (31 December 1960, NIC Control #23914). We also wish to note that, because of the nature of their contents, the Report and these related papers should be regarded and controlled as extremely sensitive documents, to be made available only to those whose duties require their use.
